UTAH NEWS.

The commissioners of Emery county have reported the ordinance recently passed licensing sheep.

Mrs. Lou Hamilton, in jail at Salt Lake on the charge of murdering her husband, is still in feeble health and requires the services of a physician.

A child aged 14 months, daughter of John Jones, a carpenter at Murray, fell into an irrigation ditch a few yards from the house and was drowned.

Charles Taylor of Bountiful has been inducted at Congressmen King's conduct at the United States Military academy, with Col. W. G. Cole of Salt Lake City as attorney.

The annual crop of onions is being cut; grain is being harvested and every thing business-like for the farmers in Washington county, in every respect.

Nineteen Mormon missionaries left Salt Lake City last week for the east. They are destined for various fields in this country and Europe.

Four cases of small pox are said to exist among the Indians at Josephine, Tooele county, who have been taken to the leper settlement and isolated, and nothing has been done for them in the way of medical attendance.

The cause that Duncan Kipp of Bountiful, who returned recently from a sojourn of three years in the Samoan Islands as a Mormon missionary, was attacked with leprosy, is pronounced a success.

Dr. Park, state superintendent of public instruction, is closing up the contests with the publishers for the text-books adopted by the recent text-book convention. Each publisher who had a book adopted must enter into a contract and give bonds to furnish the books at the prices named in his bid.

Mrs. Corn Thomas, who is charged with murder in the first degree, for the killing of her husband, Samuel Thomas, a member of the Twenty-fourth Infantry band, had a preliminary hearing before Justice McMaster at Salt Lake city and was held for trial in the district court under a $5,000 bond.

Washington county is being depopulated of cattle, on account of the high price being paid. Everyone owning cattle is selling; in fact the highest price for years is being paid. There are more buyers than cattle, and each one has been gradually outstripping the other. Some very fine herds are being pushed toward Milford for shipment.

The case of John Adams and others charged with gambling at Fort Douglas, has been tried by court-martial at the post. Adams was found guilty and sentenced to serve one month in the guard-house, besides being deprived of his pay for one month. Several other men who were tried for gambling were simply fined. A gambling den was found under the band house, which five month games were running.

John Stubb of Salt Lake City is to go into the lecture field. He will open at Brigham and close at Park City. He has armed himself with a banner bearing his portrait and the legend, "Stubbs, the Trump Doctor of the West." Subject: "The Social and Political Condition of the Industrial Classes." Mr. Stubbs has not recited from literature, as he has a work in hand called "The Coming Crisis."

James O'Connor and John Dolan, whose true name is Charles Kempton, both youths, who pleaded guilty to burglary were six months ago and were sent to the reform school, but behaved themselves so badly in that institution that they could not be kept there any longer, were brought before Judge Norwell at Salt Lake City for further proceeding and his honor sentenced O'Connor to eighteen months and Kempton to one year in the state prison.

St. George was thrown into excitement over a fire in the Daniel Ranch on the 11th inst., which took the united efforts of about seventy-five men to get it under control. The fire was started in the stables of D. H. Cannon, Jr., by little boys and rascals, and a high wind was blowing from the southwest, carrying the flames toward the Land and Acre farm. Some time it looked as if they were doomed, but two brigades working from both sides got them under control. No damage was done to the former, while the latter was scorched badly. Mr. Cannon is the only man damaged to any extent.

The Utah Press association, whose membership includes nearly all the newspaper editors and publishers in the state, will have an outing at beautiful Castle Springs on July 4. Several hundred dollars in money and merchandise have been donated, which will be hung up as prizes in various contests that will take place. Special rates will prevail and a large throng is expected to be present. The assets this day have always been enjoyed.

THE WOOL SCHEDULE.

Changes that an American Comptroller of the Mint was being visited.

Washington, June 23.—An exciting debate marked the consideration of the wool schedule, which began at 10:30 a.m.

Developed, 600, in a series of agreements on the Republican side of Senate and 164 by a majority of 10, concerning the changes made by Senator James, the People's party candidate for governor of Maine last year. Mr. Bryan said:

"No condition was attached in the money bills over to Senator Allen, except that it should be used according to Mr. Allen's judgment for the cause of internationalism. All donations were made for that purpose. The money was divided between Democrats, Populists and Free Soil Republicans in proportion to the vote cast. To prove the Populists would have been an inconsiderable slight. The subject of finance was not discussed directly or indirectly."

Mr. Bateman, I presume, has reference to the letter as reproduced in my book. Extract it from the newspaper. If Prof. Bateman proves to me it is unconstitutional, I shall make the change in subsequent editions.

John W. McCarthy Aspirated.

Washington, June 23.—Judge Brewster sustained the motion of the defense in the case of John W. McCarthy, a banker of this city, on trial for alleged contempt of the Senate committee investigating railroads, and ordered the jury to return a verdict of acquittal. The ground of the decision was that the questions asked were irrelevant.

Side from this strong intervention progress was made on the wool, which

The duty on sheepskin was agreed to at 10 cents per pound, and a second-class wool at 15 cents, which increases the basic and weight rates in each case. The ratios on third-class wools were reduced.
